ARBA YOUTH DEPARTMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in the ARBA Youth program, you have the responsibility of representing the ARBA to the public. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you, your family and the ARBA. To do that, you must:

- 1) Conduct yourself and your project work in a manner that is trustworthy, respectful, responsible, fair, caring and in good citizenship.
- 2) Be responsible for your actions by following the rules and being accountable. This includes being in assigned program locations/sessions, abiding by deadlines and times. If you are unable to participate or need assistance, notify those in charge of the event/program.
- 3) Treat yourself, other people, animals and property with respect, using good manners, dressing appropriately and by not using profanity. You will be personally responsible for any damage caused as a result of your behavior. Know that the use of tobacco, alcohol, and non-prescribed drugs by youth is illegal.
- 4) Demonstrate caring for people other than yourself. Know that harassment of any type is illegal and prohibited at all ARBA events.
- 5) Be a good citizen by participating fully, and helping those around you have positive experiences.

YOUTH PARTICIPANTS: I have read the Code of Conduct above and agree to abide by these expectations. I realize my failure to do so could result in a loss of privileges during events and/or in the future.
